Conventions

As our Ambassador we will send you to the National Inspirational Youth Convention (NIYC) or the International Youth Convention (IYC) Church of God. We ask if it's possible for our Young Ambassador to:

- The Young Ambassadors are expected to participate in their state youth activities.
- Christian Women Connection International Convention is held bi-annually. If we have a CWC International Convention during the year the young ambassador serves, we request that they attend this event as well.
- We ask that they serve at our CWC table during convenient times which we will plan before the event as we look at the NIYC or IYC program schedule to see when you are available. Our Young Ambassador will give out promotional items, see if women would like information about our Christian Women Connection upcoming National Convention.
- We ask that you be available to interview your peers at NIYC or IYC and ask them how they are enjoying the convention and post periodically to CWC and her personal social media pages such as Facebook, Instagram, Twitter, and Pinterest. (Please do tag and mention CWC) There is room for creativity in this area and we will work together.
- Write and share of your experiences at NIYC or IYC so we can share with our CWC family.
- We ask that you encourage eligible peers to apply for the next Ambassador's Program.
- The Ambassador's Program will include
  - One (1) for either NIYC or IYC registration for our Young Ambassador.
  - One (1) Hotel Room including parking
