Our Speaker

Jenny Mihsill, along with her husband Bobby, has served as a missionary in Côte d'Ivoire since January 2015. She teaches a variety of theological courses at IBAO, West Africa Bible Institute, and assists the national church in training leaders for the Children of Promise program. Bobby and Jenny led the launch of the Children of Promise program in Côte d'Ivoire in the summer of 2016. Another one of their ministry responsibilities is to help coordinate and host missions teams in Côte d'Ivoire.

Jenny was born in Seymour, Indiana, but was raised in Woodburn, Oregon, after her parents (Sam and Mary Dunbar) relocated to serve in ministry at Hoodview Church of God. The seed for missions was first planted in her heart at a youth session at Oregon State Camp Meeting. She has been on numerous mission trips and previously served as a special assignment missionary to Japan for Global Strategy for three years.

Jenny met Bobby when she was working to complete her AUSOT internship in India, which is where Bobby was born and raised. They completed their seminary degrees and were married in 2010. They have two children, Moore (age 7) and Rease (age 3).

Session Themes:

Session 1: As jars of clay, we need the power of the Holy Spirit in our lives. We are weak on our own, prone to fracture, yet created with worth by a God who calls us His own. When we give ourselves to be molded by our Creator's hand, we can boldly, yet with humility, follow God's will for us.

Session 2: The all-surpassing quality of the Holy Spirit's power is exceptional, allowing us to live transformed as our fears are surpassed by peace, our despair is consumed by hope, our stagnancy is struck by transformation.

Session 3: God is our source as we see that this power is from God and not from us. The pressure to rely on ourselves is relieved when we trust that God is all-sufficient for us. With God we are empowered to be witnesses of Christ— lights in a dark world.
